

Greg Simons has a hunger for volunteering and wants to pass it on to community

Greg Simons is a giver. I knew that after the first time I met him several years ago. And he'd like for you to be a giver, too – of your time, that is.

Simons would like to get more folks involved with Kids Against Hunger by participating in third annual Kids Against Hunger Packing, 5230 Park Emerson Ave, Suite A, event sponsored by his company, Simons Bitzer & Associates. Folks can meet Saturday, May 17, from 9 – 11:30 a.m. and then from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

“It’s something I really believe in,” Simons said.

He said it’s the systems in place employed by KAH that make it fun an easy to get involved to help the malnourished. He said the process makes it very easy to help not only locally but also globally so it’s a no-brainer for him to get involved

“It’s just fun for the family,” he said. “With a minimal amount of time you can make a really big impact.”

Half of what is packed will go to local food pantries and the other half to go to specific places around the world. According to information released by Simons & Bitzer, in the past, by spending a little over a half day, 24,000 meals were packed. The goal this year is to exceed that number. There are three ways to contribute:

1. Make a cash donation – It costs $.25 for each meal packed. Your donation would help raise the funds to reach the goals for number of meals packed. Simons Bitzer will contribute a significant portion of the costs. Between your contributions and what Simons Bitzer contributes, $7,000 is the magic number. Therefore, between now and May 17, if you would like to contribute, make your check payable to Kids Against Hunger and send it tin C/O of Simons Bitzer & Associates, 8350 S. Emerson Ave., Suite 100, Indianapolis, IN 46237.

2. If you prefer to donate via debit/credit card you may do so at: kah-greenwood.org/how-to-help/join-a- packing-event.

3. Finally, the goal is to pack 28,000 meals. Children are also welcome to attend to help as long as they are with a parent. You may sign up for a shift, which is from 9-11:30 a.m., or 11:30 a.m. – 2 p.m. Go to kah-greenwood.org/how-to-help/join-a-packing-event to register. The site will ask for a minimum of $15 to participate, but that is not necessary.
